CASE NO. 20-03240-5-JNC

CHAPTER 11

ATTORNEY'S REPORT AND APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL OF COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES PURSUANT TO 11 USC § 503(b) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

Pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the undersigned as Attorney for the Debtors, Jonathan E. Friesen of Gillespie & Murphy, P.A., hereby makes this report and application to the Court for approval of attorney's fees and reimbursement of expenses pursuant to 11 USC § 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, in connection with the services rendered by counsel to date in the course of this Chapter 11 proceeding; and, in support of this application, shows the Court as follows:

1. Jonathan E. Friesen of Gillespie & Murphy, P.A., filed a voluntary Chapter 11 Petition on behalf of the Debtors, Scott A. O'Neil and Cynthia C. O'Neil, on September 25, 2020.

2. The Application to Employ Attorney, Jonathan E. Friesen of Gillespie & Murphy, P.A., was filed on October 22, 2020. The Order Authorizing Employment of Attorney for the Debtors was entered November 9, 2020.

3. Since filing the Petition, the undersigned and members of his firm have expended numerous hours assisting the Debtors with negotiating with their creditors, preparing the Debtors' remaining Schedules and Statements, assisting with compliance of their 4002 reporting, reviewing and assisting with monthly reports, and formulating their Plan of Reorganization.

4. A confirmation hearing regarding the Debtors Plan is pending. The Debtors are amending three monthly reports and must file a tax return prior to the hearing on the Debtors' Plan.

5. Pursuant to Court Order, Jonathan E. Friesen of Gillespie & Murphy, P.A., has served as attorney for the Debtors in the course of this Chapter 11 proceeding in advising the Debtors, preparing necessary documentation and by performing all other functions required of counsel.

6. Counsel for the Debtors, as referenced herein, have expended numerous hours advising the Debtors and rendering such legal services as were necessary and proper, which services are more specifically itemized on the Exhibit "A" attached hereto.

7. Due to the nature, issues, and complexity of this case and considering the amount of time and effort in negotiating with the creditors, it was sometimes necessary for an attorney and a paralegal to attend hearings, attend conferences, participate in telephonic conferences and conduct inter-office conferences to discuss the case and the status of pending issues to keep all staff advised of the immediate issues of the case. Occasions requiring the use of more than one timekeeper generally fall into one of the following categories:

- (a) Jonathan E. Friesen or the billing attorney is giving information to another lawyer or staff member regarding factual or legal issues that must be addressed in the case, and it is more efficient to meet in groups than to tell each timekeeper separately. If interaction is not required, email is used.
- (b) Information about cases, either from the client or another lawyer, witness, the Court, or the Bankruptcy Administrator, is frequently received about a case in which more than one lawyer or staff member is working. It is more efficient for the staff to receive the information as a group instead of having to repeat the information to each timekeeper separately.
- (c) In court appearances, one lawyer may have researched and prepared for an argument on one issue and another lawyer may have prepared for a separate matter. Alternatively, one lawyer may do the research and brief and another lawyer may be assigned to argue the case or examine the witnesses.

8. In the preparation, qualification and execution of their employment as attorneys for the Debtors, counsel have complied with the provisions of Sections 327, 329 and 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

9. Counsel applies for the allowance of attorney's fees pursuant to applicable provisions of statutory and case law, and asks the Court to consider the following factors in the allowance of the same:

- (a) Time and labor expended.
- (b) Novelty and difficulty of the questions raised.
- (c) Skill required to properly perform the legal services rendered.
- (d) Customary fees for like work.
- (e) Time limitations imposed by the client or circumstances.
- (f) Experience, reputation and ability of the attorney.
- (g) Nature and length of the professional relationship between attorney and client.
- (h) Attorney's fees awards in similar cases.

10. The dates, numbers and information necessary for the Court's evaluation of the factors set forth in paragraph 9 above are set forth in this Report and Application.

11. All the services for which compensation is requested were performed by or on behalf of the Debtors and not on behalf of any committee, creditors or other persons.

12. The services performed by counsel were services for which the attorney for Debtors held the sole responsibility and were not services for which any other party, attorney or any person had responsibility to the exclusion of the Debtors or the Debtors' attorney.

13. No commission, fee, allowance or any other payment to the undersigned has been computed on any funds paid back to the Debtors, any exemption to which the Debtors would be entitled or any comparable payment representing a refund or reimbursement to the Debtors.

14. This Report and Application for Approval of Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Pursuant to Section 503(b) is in compliance with the standards set forth in the Bankruptcy Code, the applicable case law and other non-bankruptcy statutes and case law.

15. Gillespie & Murphy, P.A. received $5,717.00 from the Debtors on September 23, 2020. These funds were deposited into the firm's trust account to secure future fees and expenses incurred by Gillespie & Murphy, P.A. on behalf of the Debtors. From these trust funds, $1,122.00 was paid to Gillespie & Murphy, P.A. for fees and expenses, incurred pre-Petition for the period of September 15, 2020 to September 25, 2020. In addition, the filing fee of $1,717.00 was paid from the trust funds, leaving a balance of $2,878.00 in the trust account. The Debtors paid an additional deposit of $10,000.00 on December 29, 2020. The balance of the funds deposited in the trust account is $12,804.00, which are for anticipated fees expected to arise during the course of the Chapter 11 bankruptcy. A total of $12,804.00 remains in the firm's trust account and is available for payment of legal fees and out of pocket costs pursuant to Section 503(b) incurred by Gillespie & Murphy, P.A., pursuant to orders of this court.

16. Gillespie & Murphy, P.A., has incurred fees in the amount of $7,045.50 and out of pocket expenses and advances in the amount of $0.00 and these items are detailed on the attached Exhibit "A".

WHEREFORE, your undersigned prays that Gillespie & Murphy, P.A., be allowed compensation in the amount of $7,045.50 and $0.00 for reimbursement of expenses pursuant to 11 USC §503(b) for a total of $7,045.50 for the period beginning September 26, 2020 to March 11, 2021.
